Notes:

Patients who have died from COVID-19 may have had more than one pre-existing condition.

Separately identified pre-existing conditions are reported in this table.

Information on Learning Disability and Autism and those who have received treatment for a Mental Health condition are collected separately from other conditions listed.

The accuracy of the information provided on all pre-existing conditions is reliant on the availability and transfer of information by reporting providers from patient records .

The date from which information was collected about different pre-existing conditions varies and is stated in the table.

The data include all deaths reported to NHS England from acute, mental health, learning disability and autism services, provided by NHS providers or providers of NHS funded services.

On deaths specifically in Mental Health and Learning Disability and/or Autism inpatient settings, we have been informed of 76 patient deaths, the majority occurring in acute older adult organic or functional services. In these inpatient settings, 14 deaths occurred for patients detained under the Mental Health Act and 3 deaths occurred where the patient was of BAME background. As all these deaths were in hospital they are included in the figures in the table above.

We will shortly publish additional data showing deaths of people with learning disability or autism which have been reported through the Learning Disabilities Mortality Review Programme, which includes any death of someone with a learning disability as reported to the Programme provider, the University of Bristol.
